

Instructions for Completing Client Incident Log

Incident – Record a brief statement describing the type of incident experienced. Examples include “Banging Doors”, “Whispering”, “Full Body Apparition”.

Day/Date – Record the day of week and calendar date including the year of the incident occurrence.

Time- Record here the exact time of or closest approximation of the incident occurrence .

Current Weather Condition – Record here if possible the outside weather conditions. Examples include “Rain with strong winds”, “Clear and humid”.

Location of Incident- Define where the incident occurred. Examples include “Master Bedroom”, “First Floor Hallway”, “Backyard near Fence”, “Attic”.

Witnesses - List the names of any witnesses to observe the incident occurrence.

Relationship - Indicate here the relationship of any witness of the incident. Don’t forget to include any pets that may have been present at the time.

Details of Incident- List here any information that you feel should be recorded with regards to the incident occurrence. Do not hesitate to write any detail you feel is significant, no matter how trivial it may seem. Sensory perceptions are not limited to just sight or sound, but may include unidentifiable odors, unexplained feelings of giddiness, nausea or oppression, temperature fluctuations or psychic impressions.